

THE HOPE OF THE GREAT COMMUNITY

BY

JOSIAH ROYCE

LATE ALFORD PROFESSOR OF NATURAL RELIGION
MORAL PHILOSOPHY AND CIVIL POLITY
AT HARVARD UNIVERSITY

THESE essays were written during the last year of the author's life and thus represent his latest phases of thought. Among the topics taken up are The Attitude of Americans in the Present War, The Destruction of the Lusitania, The First Anniversary of the Sinking of the Lusitania, The Possibility of International Insurance and The Hope of the Great Community. There is also an autobiographical section in which Dr. Royce writes with much charm of some of the determining factors of his life. This, and the fact that the book was in press at the time of his death make the work seem almost a memorial volume.

---

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY